How to Teach Rudhra 3-Letter Words

Reading words like cat, bus and sun is the big first step in reading. Rudhra learns three things: hearing the sounds in a word, matching letters to sounds, and blending sounds into a word. This book turns each word into something he loves: a circuit to power up, a train to load, a car to park, or a broken thing to fix.

The big idea: Sound it → Slide it → Say it

- Sound it: touch each letter and say its sound: /k/ /a/ /t/.
- Slide it: slide a finger (or a toy car!) under the letters, joining the sounds: "caaaat". This is the electricity running along the wire.
- Say it: say it fast like a real word: "cat!" The bulb lights up!

Say the sounds the right way

- Use sounds, not letter names: "c" says /k/, not "see".
- Keep sounds short and clean, with no extra "uh": say "mmm", not "muh"; "sss", not "suh".
- Short vowels: a as in apple, e as in egg, i as in igloo, o as in octopus, u as in umbrella. See the Vowel Sounds poster.

Each day: 10-15 minutes (he's 5!)

Step	Time	What to do
1. Robot Talk	2 min	Say robot words ("b-u-s"); he blends them. No paper needed.
2. Build it	3-5 min	Make today's words with letter tiles on his toy train cars or blocks.
3. Page	5 min	One activity page. Read the Grown-up line at the top first.
4. Play	3-5 min	One game from the Games page, then color a star and a solar cell.

Tips for a tinkerer

- Let him be the engineer: he powers bulbs, connects wires and fixes broken words. Call it his work, not homework.
- Let him hold a toy car and drive it under the letters while blending. Moving hands help busy kids focus.
- Stop while he's still having fun. Two short sessions beat one long one.
- Go at his pace. If a week feels hard, repeat it. Many kids need several weeks per vowel, and that's normal.
- Praise the work: "You said every sound, then slid them together. That's how readers do it!"

Before You Start: Sound Check

Point to each letter and ask, "What sound does it make?" Tick the ones he knows. If he misses some, teach 2–3 new sounds a day with the letter tiles while you go. Weeks 1–2 only need: a, b, c, d, f, g, h, i, l, m, n, o, p, r, s, t, v, w, x.

What to Do Each Day

Week 1: Short a

Day 1 • Robot Ears

Do: Play Robot Talk for 3 minutes: say "c-a-t" like a robot; he says "cat!". Then do the page.

Tip: Use only your voice, no letters yet. If he struggles, use 2 sounds: "c-at".

Day 2 • Power the Bulb (a)

Do: Build "cat" with letter tiles on 3 toy train cars. Touch each car: /k/ /a/ /t/. Push the train fast and say "cat!". Then the page.

Tip: Say SOUNDS, not letter names: c says /k/, not "see".

Day 3 • Load the Train (a)

Do: Show how to trace: start at the top, say the sound while tracing.

Tip: Big, wobbly letters are fine. Saying the sound while writing is what matters.

Day 4 • Park the Cars: -at, -an

Do: Make "cat" with tiles. Swap the c for h: "hat"! Swap for r: "rat". He's changing just one part, like swapping a wheel.

Tip: Point out the rhyme: cat, hat, rat, bat all sound the same at the end.

Day 5 • Wire It Up (a)

Do: Lay 3 picture cards and 3 word cards on the floor; he connects them with string or pipe cleaners. Then the page.

Tip: Let him check by blending, not by guessing from the first letter.

Week 2: Short o and i

Day 6 • Robot Ears (o, i)

Do: Robot Talk with o and i words: d-o-g, p-i-g, b-o-x. Show the vowel poster: o octopus, i igloo.

Tip: o and i can sound alike to young ears — exaggerate the mouth: o is a round mouth, i is a smile.

Day 7 • Power the Bulb (o)

Do: Tile train again: d-o-g. Then change d to l: log!

Tip: If he says "dog" for "log", ask: what's the FIRST sound? Point to it.

Day 8 • Load the Train (i)

Do: Trace and say: /p/ /i/ /g/.

Tip: Keep i short: "ih", like itchy.

Day 9 • Park the Cars: -ot, -ig, -in

Do: Tile families: pot → dot → hot. pig → wig → dig.

Tip: Make it a race: how many words can he make by changing only the first tile?

Day 10 • Fix-It Shop (a, o, i)

Do: Fix-It Shop game first: show c_t with tiles; he tries a, o, i in the gap and reads each one. Which is a real word that matches the picture?

Tip: "cot" and "cit" are funny — laughing helps him notice the middle sound.

Week 3: Short u and e

Day 11 • Robot Ears (u, e)

Do: Robot Talk with u and e words: b-u-s, b-e-d. Show the vowel poster: u umbrella, e egg.

Tip: e and i are the hardest pair. Exaggerate: e is "eh" (egg), i is "ih" (itch).

Day 12 • Power the Bulb (u)

Do: Tile train: s-u-n. Then he picks a card from the pile and reads it to "charge" the solar panel.

Tip: u is "uh" like umbrella.

Day 13 • Load the Train (e)

Do: Trace and say: /b/ /e/ /d/.

Tip: Bed: draw a little bed on the b and d if he mixes them up.

Day 14 • Fix-It Shop (all)

Do: Fix-It Shop with tiles, all vowels.

Tip: If stuck, say the word slowly and stretch the middle: "s...uuu...n".

Day 15 • Wire It Up (u, e)

Do: Wire It Up with string on the floor first, then the page.

Tip: Mix in a few word cards from earlier weeks.

Week 4: Read it!

Day 16 • Which Bus Stop?

Do: Bus Stop game: 5 vowel cards on the floor as bus stops; he drives his school bus to the right stop for each picture card.

Tip: Stretch the word and freeze on the middle: "h...eeee...n".

Day 17 • Build the Word

Do: Tap one finger per sound before writing: /s/ /u/ /n/ — 3 fingers, 3 boxes.

Tip: Spelling is harder than reading. Let him use the tiles or the letter bank.

Day 18 • Read & Circle

Do: Teach the word "a" as a heart word (just know it by heart).

Tip: If he guesses from the picture, cover the pictures until he has read the words.

Day 19 • Read & Draw

Do: He reads each box, then draws. Ask: "Show me the red part!"

Tip: Drawing shows he understood — that's real reading.

Day 20 • Yes or No? + Reading Check

Do: Teach heart words: the, is, in, on, has (read them together 3 times). Do Yes or No, then the Reading Check. Give the certificate!

Tip: Count any word he sounds out and gets right. Celebrate big!

Games Rudhra Will Love

Play one game every day, and use games instead of pages whenever he is tired. Games ARE learning.

Game	You need	How to play
Robot Talk	nothing	You talk like a robot: "Get your c-u-p!" He blends and does it. Then he's the robot and you guess.
Word Train	letter tiles + toy train	Tape tiles on 3 train cars. He touches each car saying its sound, then pushes the train fast and says the word. Swap the first car to make a new word.
Solar Power Reading	word cards + his solar panel toy or a sunny window	Each word he reads "charges" the panel. 5 words = color a cell on the Solar Power Chart.
Bus Stop	vowel cards + toy school bus	Put a, e, i, o, u cards on the floor as bus stops. Show a picture card; he drives the bus to the stop for its middle sound.
Park the Cars	toy cars + paper garages	Label garages -at, -og, -ug. Put a letter on each car. He parks a car and reads the word it makes.
Fix-It Shop	tiles + his toy tools	Make a "broken" word (c-o-t under a cat picture). He uses a toy wrench to swap the broken tile.
Wire It Up	string, yarn or pipe cleaners	Word cards on one side, picture cards on the other. He connects each pair with a "wire".
Mouse Click Words	computer + mouse	Open a blank document with a huge font (150+). He types a word he just read, then clicks to change its color. Typing one finger at a time is great sound-by-sound practice.
Robot Bingo	Bingo page + coins	Call robot words; he covers the pictures. 3 in a row wins.

When to move on

- He can read most of the week's words by sounding them out (it's fine if he's still slow).
- If not, repeat the week: replay the games, rebuild words with tiles, and reprint the pages.
- After the 4 weeks: keep 5 minutes a day of word cards and Robot Talk. Next step: 4-letter words like "stop" and "frog".
